Jeremy & Angel Martin #14681

The Martins have sensed the Lord’s call to serve His people overseas. They led short-term missions trips from their home church, Christ Kingdom Church (PCA) in Orlando, Fla., where Jeremy serves as a deacon and the chair of the missions committee. Angel participates on the worship, children’s ministry, and business teams.

For the past 11 years, Jeremy has served as the sales manager of a construction rental company. Angel has served as the lead radiation therapist at a major hospital. Their professional skills along with their spiritual gifts will be used to serve with a diverse and dynamic team in Uganda. Their responsibilities will include ministering to the physical and logistical needs of the local church, the MTW Uganda team, and also developing opportunities for internships and missional teams. Uganda provides a strategic location to introduce African missions to the American church. These opportunities will be created with the assistance of national partners in the hope of proclaiming the gospel in a fashion that is both Christ honoring and culturally sensitive to the Ugandan people.
